The Clerk is directed to send the following to Defendants Martha Newlon, Lysle Williams, and Sarah Landis by first class mail at the addresses provided under seal by attorney Sarah Brisbin, Dkt. 91: a copy of plaintiff's complaint, a copy of this Order, two copies of the notice of lawsuit and request for waiver of service of summons, a waiver of service of summons, and a return envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the Clerk's Office.

All service documents with said addresses shall also be filed under seal.

2 Defendant(s) shall have thirty (30) days within which to return the enclosed waiver of 3 service of summons. A defendant who timely returns the signed waiver shall have sixty (60) days
4 after the date designated on the notice of lawsuit to file and serve an answer to the complaint or a
5 motion permitted under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6 A defendant who fails to timely return the signed waiver will be personally served with a
7 summons and complaint, and may be required to pay the full costs of such service, pursuant to
8 Rule 4(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A defendant who has been personally served
9 shall file an answer or motion permitted under Rule 12 within twenty-one (21) days after service.

10 (3) Filing and Service by Parties, Generally

11 All attorneys admitted to practice before this Court are required to file documents
12 electronically via the Court's CM/ECF system. Counsel are directed to the Court's website,
13 www.wawd.uscourts.gov, for a detailed description of the requirements for filing via CM/ECF.
14 All non-attorneys, such as pro se parties and/or prisoners, may continue to file a paper original
15 with the Clerk. All filings, whether filed electronically or in traditional paper format, must indicate
16 in the upper right hand corner the name of the magistrate judge to whom the document is directed.

17 For any party filing electronically, when the total of all pages of a filing exceeds fifty (50)

20 with the words "Courtesy Copy of Electronic Filing for Chambers."

21 Any document filed with the Court must be accompanied by proof that it has been served
22 upon all parties that have entered a notice of appearance in the underlying matter.

1 (4) Motions, Generally

2 Any request for court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served.
3 Pursuant to LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a
4 part of the motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption
5 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for
6 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar.

7 Stipulated and agreed motions, motions to file over-length motions or briefs, motions for
8 reconsideration, joint submissions pursuant to the option procedure established in LCR 37(a)(2),
9 motions for default, requests for the clerk to enter default judgment, and motions for the court to

11 on the day they are filed. See LCR 7(d)(1). All other non-dispositive motions shall be noted for 12 consideration no earlier than the third Friday following filing and service of the motion. See LCR

17 preceding the date designated for consideration of the motion. If a party (i.e. a pro se litigant 18 and/or prisoner) files a paper original, that opposition must be received in the Clerk's office by 19 4:30 p.m. on the Monday preceding the date of consideration.

20 The party making the motion may file and serve, not later than 11:59 p.m. (if filing
21 electronically) or 4:30 p.m. (if filing a paper original with the Clerk's office) on the date designated 22 for consideration of the motion, a reply to the opposing party's briefs and affidavits.

(5) Motions to Dismiss and Motions for Summary Judgment

Parties filing motions to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and motions for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should acquaint themselves with those rules. As noted above, these motions shall be noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the motion.

Defendants filing motions to dismiss or motions for summary judgment are advised that they MUST serve a Rand notice concurrently with motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment so that pro se prisoner plaintiffs will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of them in order to oppose those motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir. 2012). The Ninth Circuit has set forth model language for such notices:

A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added). Defendants who fail to file and serve the required Rand notice on plaintiff may have their motion stricken from the Court's calendar with leave to re-file.

No direct communication is to take place with the District Judge or Magistrate Judge with to this case. All relevant information and papers are to be directed to the Clerk.

Dated this 2nd day of August, 2022.
